- 35. A person shall cease to be a Trustee in any of the following events:
 - a. If he dies;
 - b. If he becomes Bankrupt; or
 - c. If he becomes insane or otherwise become incapable to act; or
 - d. If he resigns his office; or
 - e. If he is removed for guilty of misconduct.
- 36. On a new or additional trustee being appointed and on his signifying his acceptance in writing to the effect of his accepting the appointment. The trust property shall automatically vest in him along with the other trustees for the time being and he will be entitled to carry out all the duties and functions of a trustee without any other deed or writing.
- 37. The Board of Trustees shall be entitled to sue in the name of the trust and may similarly be sued in the name of the trust.
- 38. The Board of Trustees may by a unanimous vote of all the trustees for the time being except the trustee proposed to be removed, remove any trustee, permanent or otherwise from office after finding the trustee proposed to be removed guilty of serious misconduct in relation to or concerning the trust estate or trust affairs arriving at a definite conclusion that for the reasons to be recorded in writing to continue of the trustee proposed to be removed as trustees or these presents was desirable. Keeping to the objects of the trusts in view and other related or connected matters provided however that no conclusion of such guilt should be arrived at without giving to the trustee proposed to be removed a full and fair opportunity of explaining facts and/or the charges levied against him for his removal. And the decision of the Board of Trustees in this behalf shall be final and binding and shall not be called in question anywhere.
